The 2017 Jailbreak will include a team competition. Teams must be comprised of at least three people, and will compete in one of three pre-determined divisions: Male, Female or Co-ed. Only the three fastest members of each team will be scored, and the team score will be determined by averaging the three times. (The scored members of a Co-ed team must include a team member of each gender.) A team award will be presented to the first place team in each division. Team registration must be accomplished online.
