Proceeds of the event benefit the Midlands Fatherhood Coalition, a nonprofit organization focused on engaging fathers in the positive support of their children. The organization provides free services that include education, job readiness, men's health education, legal education, parenting, spiritual development, referrals, job assistance, drug/alcohol education, and peer support. Last year, the Midlands Fatherhood Coalition served 1311 fathers across the Midlands and saved taxpayers $2.84 million in incarceration costs through their Jobs Not Jail Program.
